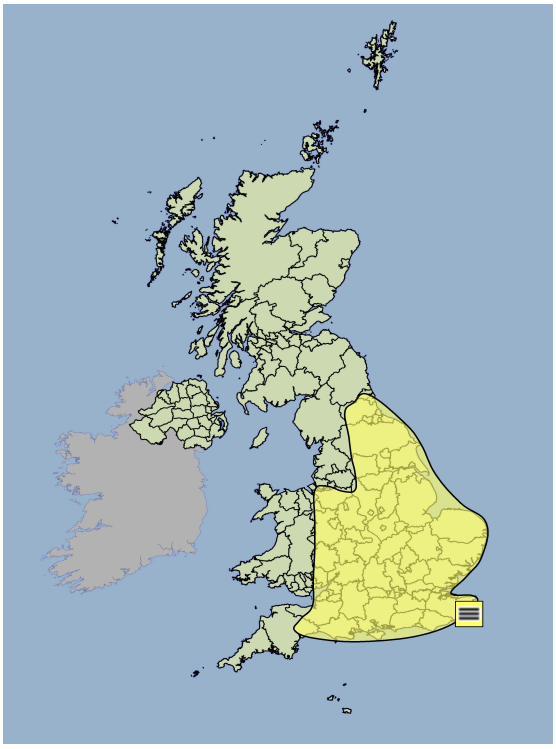
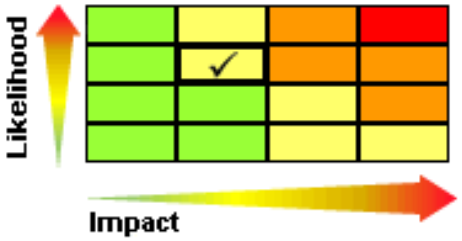
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Fog patches will affect some parts of the yellow area as early as Monday evening. However, there is potential for fog to become more widespread overnight and into Tuesday morning. Some places within the yellow area will not see fog, but where it forms it could be locally dense with visibility falling below 200 metres.

The fog may be slow to clear on Tuesday in some places, especially across the east of the warning area.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Fog

Valid from 00:15 on Tue, 21st Jan 2014 until 12:00 on Tue, 21st Jan 2014

Patchy fog will form in places through Monday evening, perhaps becoming more widespread overnight and into Tuesday morning. The public should be aware of the potential for difficult driving conditions and some travel disruption.
